Sharing is sexy!

Numbers show that online dating is now more popular than ever, with almost 35 percent of the singles population trying their hand in it. If you are new to online dating or are trying it out again – this article is perfect for you. It is full of the best online dating tips that when used, will guarantee you success. Let's take a look at what the tips are.

1. The importance of a wishlist

The best way to go about online dating is going in having a strategy. It is much like creating a shopping list – as detailed as possible. Generic sentences like “a guy that wants children” are not helpful. “A man who wants three kids and a white picket fence,” however, is much better. You must define what exactly you are looking for.

2. Prioritizing

Once you have put together a list of things you are looking for, the next step is to prioritize them. Rate them on the scale from 1-10. It is vital to know what are the most important things you need and what you can live without.

3. Finding a dating site

The number one thing you want to keep in mind when choosing an online dating portal is safety. Make sure the site has a proper anti-scam policy, money back guarantees and so on. It should also have features that you are most likely to use when you start looking for your ideal partner.

4. Building a profile

Keep it short and sweet. Provide information about who you are and what you are looking for but don't overdo it. People in online dating won't be taking their time to go through a lengthy profile since they are going through so many.

5. Pictures

Your profile picture is the first thing people see, so you better upload a good one. The photo should be a good headshot where you are looking straight at the camera and aren't wearing sunglasses or a hat. Also, the pictures must be recent.

Summary

Use these tips to boost your online dating experience and come back soon for more online dating articles and tips.
