In terms of dating Russian girls online, guys must put in more effort in order to attract and keep a Russian woman's interest. Read our guide on what we think can be done to ensure you attract the attention of as many women as possible.

1. Use a positive photo as your profile image

Females tend to be attracted to guys who are confident and positive. It's possible you're asking yourself what is the best way to show your greatest side without having to say anything? It's pretty straightforward! Add photographs to your profile that show you smiling, laughing and having a fantastic time. Several guys on international dating websites think that they can impress women with pictures where they're staring intently into the camera and even though it could be attractive for some ladies, smiles and laughter produce the best results. Given that your profile photo is the very first thing a Russian woman sees when browsing the website, it really is important to make it worthwhile.

2. Create a good profile

When your charming profile image has attracted the attention of a Russian lady, she will then proceed to have a look at your complete profile. This can be your single and only chance to make her curious about you and make her want to know more. It really is crucial to appear and sound optimistic. Never write about your doubts of meeting anyone suitable on the dating website, don't mention your previous dating disappointments, your issues with scams and frauds, and so forth. Despite the fact that it's normal to have such negative feelings, your profile just isn't the best place to broadcast them. Attempt thinking of your dating site profile as a private advertisement. Do enterprises promote their doubts in newspapers? The answer is no, so neither should you.

3. Don't overdo it in your first emails

If your excellent profile photo and a great profile have completed their job, a Russian lady will send you a message to start chatting with you. Once again, it really is necessary to sound optimistic, especially in the beginning of the online relationship. It really is advisable not to complain about the expenses of dating Russian girls online, never accuse your chat partner of being a fraud, stay away from dramatic topics like economic troubles, death, war and wellness issues. It is not that you can't discuss these topics, you definitely can later on, but it is advised to keep things optimistic and light in the "getting to know each other" phase of a web-based friendship. If things go well, you will have plenty of time to go over the difficult subjects that concern you the most.

To sum it up, the most effective approach for attracting the attention of a Russian girl and maintaining her interest is staying optimistic. Despite the fact that life often isn't straightforward, an optimistic and light attitude goes a long way in winning a woman's heart.
